

F.L. ELDER AWARD

FOR OUTSTANDING REPORTING IN EDUCATION NOMINATION

About this Award

Texas ASCD's F.L. Elder Award recognizes professional reporting that explains educational issues in a way that leads to a better public understanding of education, describes how the community can work with schools to increase student opportunities, examines educational practice in schools and districts, and discusses trends in schools and their impact on communities.

Acceptable Feature Entries:

1. Single article/feature: a stand-alone article
2. Editorial/Column: one piece that expresses the publication's position or the writer's opinion
3. Series: a group of articles comprising a series, and
4. Supplement: a special section on a general educational topic printed in one issue of a publication.

Areas of Entry:

1. Print reporters
2. Media reporters
3. School public relations personnel (Must be an internal publication)

Nomination Instructions

Scan the QR code or click here to submit your nomination form, including examples explaining why the educator deserves the award.

Nominations must be received by August 31, 2024.

Honors

A committee selects the honorees. Recipients will be notified by September 15, 2024, and honored at the 2024 Annual Conference on Tuesday, October 15. The recipient will receive a complimentary registration to the event, an award, a one-year membership to Texas ASCD, and recognition in a Texas ASCD publication.

www.txascd.org